The screenshot shows a user interface for managing movie reservations. The background features a film reel and camera equipment. A central modal window displays two reservation entries:

YOUR RESERVATIONS:

MOVIE NAME: IN TIME
MONDAY 19:30h
SEAT: B4

MOVIE NAME: BLUE LAGOON
THURSDAY 19:30h
SEAT: C8

For each entry, there is a red button labeled "CANCEL THIS RESERVATION".
